

Individual Giving Representative

- Inspire our supporters to make a positive impact on justice and global poverty
- Join a team of passionate fundraising specialists
- Part-time hours, may include evenings – fixed term until July 2019.

The role

As an Individual Giving Representative, you will be at the frontline of engagement with our current and potential supporters. You'll contact our supporters and prospects via the phone to encourage and inspire them to take the next step in their journey of justice and give them options to respond to global poverty. You'll be at the forefront of creating respectful, trusting and long-term relationships with our supporters, so it is essential you have the ability to engage in conversation around our mission "Motivated by Jesus, we encourage Kiwis to act for justice to relieve poverty among the world's most vulnerable people".

The role has responsibility for achieving call volume and fundraising targets. In addition, our ideal candidates will:

- Have an excellent phone manner with the ability to persuasively articulate key messages
- Have experience working in a call centre, outbound calling, fundraising or similar role
- Be available to work 20 hours / week until July 2019. Some evening work (up to 8pm) may be required, with the option of working some shifts from home
- Have the ability to work unsupervised, to maintain motivation and to achieve targets

The role is paying $20/hour + commission

To find out more about the role, please call Glen on 021 837 936. To apply, please send a cover letter and CV to work@tearfund.org.nz